

Real Estate Council of Ontario

Case Summary: Michael Stolberg

Forum	Licence Appeal Tribunal (LAT or “the Tribunal”)
Decision	Registration as salesperson revoked
Date of Decision	August 30, 2018

Summary

Stolberg entered a home which was listed for sale. He stole change and batteries, and rummaged through private areas in the home. His actions were captured on video camera. Stolberg admitted to having taken other small items from homes in the past.

As a result of these facts, the Tribunal found that there were reasonable grounds to believe he would not carry on business in accordance with law, integrity and honesty. The Tribunal ordered the Registrar to revoke the registration of Stolberg.
